

[1]

[1]

Vidalia City Schools Partners with Memorial Health Meadows Hospital on Literacy Initiative [1]

On 12 Nov, 2022

Vidalia City Schools has partnered with Memorial Health Meadows Hospital to ensure that all babies get an early start on literacy. Awarded the Georgia Department of Education L4GA grant (Literacy for Learning, Living, and Leading) grant earlier this year, Vidalia City Schools is using the funding to improve literacy in our community.

The "Bundle of Joy" includes two (2) books that can be read to babies, foam letters to learn the alphabet, and information on expected literacy milestones for babies as they grow.

Continue Reading [1]

Source

URL: <https://www.toombsconnect.com/connect/news/vidalia-city-schools-partners-memorial-health-meadows-hospital-literacy-initiative>

Links

[1] <https://www.toombsconnect.com/connect/news/vidalia-city-schools-partners-memorial-health-meadows-hospital-literacy-initiative>